

Hal Rogers Fellow

General Information

The proposed recipient of a Hal Rogers Fellow award must have demonstrated integrity, leadership and service to the community (municipal, provincial, national or international). The Kin Canada Foundation reserves the unfettered right to approve or decline the approval of the awarding of the Hal Rogers Fellow. The Foundation reserves the right to cancel any award once bestowed and terminate the privileges associated therewith, if any recipient fails to uphold the tenets of the award as stipulated or by any means brings the name and legacy of Hal Rogers, the Kin Canada Foundation or Kin Canada into disrepute.

In addition to filling out the following application form, the applicant(s) must attach a detailed overview of the nominee, demonstrating that the nominee meets the aforementioned ideals. In order to process the Hal Rogers Fellow, a minimum donation of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars must accompany the application. Donations shall be payable to the Kin Canada Foundation. These funds will be invested in a permanent endowment fund for the benefit of Kin Canada Association programs and priorities.

The presentation of the Hal Rogers Fellow should be done with care and dignity as befits such an award. Local media should be invited to attend and cover the event and press releases done to promote the event in your community to the benefit of the club, your recipient and your Association. Kin Canada Foundation would appreciate receiving any news coverage and pictures of the presentation event for their archives.

It is imperative that everyone remembers that the awarding of a Hal Rogers Fellow to a member of Kin or a non-member of Kin is a reflection upon our Association and everything that Founder Hal stood for. Kin Canada Foundation – Fondation Kin Canada, would like to thank all Kin who take the time to apply on behalf of those deserving of this wonderful award honouring our Founder. We look forward to receiving your application and will process it as quickly as possible. If you have any further questions, please contact Kin Headquarters and they will put you in touch with the closest Kin Canada Foundation Board Member who can assist where necessary.

Applications can be completed online using the link provide on our website. To request an application to complete offline, or for questions not addressed above, please email: kincanadafoundation@gmail.com

Hal Rogers Fellow

Recognition Criteria

The Hal Rogers Fellow is the highest honour bestowed/conferred by the Kin Canada Foundation. The prestigious Hal Rogers Fellow (HRF) program recognizes individual Kin, alumni or fellow Canadians who have made a significant contribution to their community, province, or country.

The Hal Rogers Fellow program has three (3) levels of recognition, namely Companion, Officer and Member.

The Companion and Officer levels are awarded through a nomination process put forth by a Club, a District or the Kin Canada Foundation. The Member level is awarded through either an application or nomination process put forth by the applicant, a Club, a District or the Kin Canada Foundation. The applying or nominating party is responsible for all costs associated with the recognition.

All recognition shall be presented by a member of the Board of the Kin Canada Foundation or their designate.

Companion and Officer Recognition Levels

Recognition at the Companion and Officer Levels will be determined and approved by the Kin Canada Foundation, based upon the submitted nomination application, as well as the recognition criteria detailed below. At all times, the Kin Canada Foundation reserves the right to waive certain criteria if the Board feels that an application so warrants.

The minimum cost of nominating an individual for the Companion and Officer recognition levels is one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars. The nominating party is responsible for the cost.

Members of Kin

- Recognition at the Companion Level and Officer Level is restricted to active and non-active members of Kin Canada with a minimum membership in the Association as follows:
  - Companion Level – Twenty (20) Years
  - Officer Level – Ten (10) Years

- Each active or non-active member must have served Kin outside of their Club as follows:

- Companion Level – at a National Level
- Officer Level – at a District or National Level

This includes service in both elected and non-elected positions, or as deemed deserving by the Kin Canada Foundation on a case-by-case basis.

Non-Kin

- The Companion Level includes:
  - Nominees who have served and/or made an impact on Canada and the lives of Canadians in a manner that demonstrate Kin ideals.
  - Nominees who have brought recognition to Canada, nationally or internationally, whether it be through entertainment, sports, academics, science or volunteerism.
- The Officer Level includes:
  - 49th Parallel North recipients;
  - Nominees who have served and/or made an impact on their communities at the municipal, regional and/or provincial level in a manner that demonstrate Kin ideals;
  - Nominees who have provided significant support for Kin at the municipal, regional and/or provincial level.

Member Recognition Level

- Recognition at the Member level is restricted to/limited to:
  - active members of Kin Canada, in good standing, with a minimum membership in the Association of five (5) years; or
  - active or non-active life members of Kin Canada.
- Any active or life member can apply for or be nominated for the Member level.
- The minimum cost of applying or being nominated for the Member level is one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars. The applying or nominating party is responsible for the cost.
- The applying party should apply for the Member Level at the time of their first donation to the Hal Rogers Fellow Program. Individuals wishing to accrue this donation over time must make minimum annual donations of at least two hundred ($200.00) dollars in order to be tracked.
